Ideal Heating & Cooling Limited

I was placed in this position by the Student Career Placement program funded by the federal government. My objective for the term of this placement was to design and implement a new company website. I completed this project well ahead of schedule and continued to excel at other projects given to me. After this work term, I was retained as a part time employee during my study terms to maintain the on-site computers and to work on other projects.

July '01 - Dec '01

Staples/Business Depot, Sales Area Associate

As a computer/business machines sales consultant I assisted customers in finding a complete and economical solution that met their needs. I offered the customer prompt, knowledgeable, friendly, and courteous customer service. My other responsibilities included: consultation with customers in a technical and non-technical manner, troubleshooting of hardware and software, installation of hardware components, and providing over-the-phone technical support for customers.
